

Greater Manchester Academic Nephrology Network Symposium

Date: Wednesday 29th Nov 2017

Venue: Seminar Room 7, 2nd floor Mayo Building, SRFT

Time	Talk	Speaker/Sponsor
14:00	Lunch	Pharmacosmos
14:15	Welcome
14:15 - 14:35	Results of the PREDnisolone in Nephrotic Syndrome 1 (PREDNOS1) trial	Professor Nick Webb, Consultant Pediatric Nephrologist, RMCH
14:35 - 14:55	Frailty Screening Methods in Advanced CKD: An Interim Analysis	Dr Andrew Nixon, Specialist renal trainee, Royal Preston Hospital
14:55 - 15:15	Can circulating donor DNA be used to diagnose transplant rejection?	Dr Sajida Rasul, Specialist renal trainee, CMFT
15:15 - 15:30	Coffee Break/Networking
15:30 - 15:50	Using Tolvaptan to modify disease progression in Autosomal Dominant Polycystic Kidney Disease	Dr Grahame Wood, Consultant Nephrologist, SRFT
15:50 - 16:10	Immunoadsorption therapy in Autoimmune Membranous Nephropathy - update on the PRISM trial	Dr Patrick Hamilton, Clinical research fellow and specialist renal trainee, MRI
16:10 - 16:30	Longitudinal cognitive deficits in patients undergoing transition into end stage renal disease?	Dr James Tollitt, Clinical research fellow and specialist renal trainee, SRFT
16:30 - 16:40	Magnetic Resonance Imaging as a biomarker in kidney disease and Update on UK and European Renal Imaging Networks	Dr Ags Odudu, NIHR Clinical Lecturer in Nephrology, University of Manchester
16:45	Close

Please tweet by using #gmann @gmnephrology

Website : www.gmann.co.uk